

ASEAN IWRM PERFORMANCE REPORTS & MONITORING INDICATORS
Malaysia Summary Report (Stormwater Management)

IWRM Issue 3 – Stormwater Management (14 indicators)
Indicator Types	Indicators	2023	2024
Outcome Indicators	1. Percentage of local authorities/ cities having a stormwater management policy to manage flash floods	100%	100%
	2. Percentage of local authorities/ cities having a stormwater quality management policy to protect river/ drainage system water quality	40%	40%
	3. Percentage of local authorities/ cities having a rainwater harvesting policy	35%	35%
Enabling Environment (EE) Indicators	1. Any “Policy” on stormwater management	8	8
	2. Any “Legislation/Regulations” on stormwater management	8	8
	3. Any “Financial framework and Financial plans” for stormwater management	2	2
Institutional Set-up (IS) Indicators	1. Any national agency entrusted with the responsibility to support local authorities/ cities to manage stormwater	8	8
	2. Any formal institutional arrangement among related agencies to support local authorities/ cities to manage stormwater	5	5
Management Tools (MT) Indicators	1. Any national stormwater management master plan	8	8
	2. Any code of practice/ design manual for stormwater management	8	8
	3. Any computer modelling of stormwater quality and quantity	8	8
	4. Any urban stormwater flood warning system/ telemetric system	7	7
	5. Any integrated stormwater management data center	7	7
	6. Any 24-hour Call/ Feedback Center for reporting flash floods	7	7