

ASEAN IWRM PERFORMANCE REPORTS & MONITORING INDICATORS

Malaysia Summary Report (Stormwater Management)

IWRM Issue 3 - Stormwater Management (14 indicators)
Indicator Types	Indicators	2010	2013
Outcome Indicators	1. Percentage of local authorities/cities having a stormwater management policy to manage flash floods	93.75%	93.75%
	2. Percentage of local authorities/cities having a stormwater quality management policy to protect river/drainage system water quality	18.75%	31.25%
	3. Percentage of local authorities/cities having a rainwater harvesting policy	-	37.5%
EE Indicators	1. Any "Policy" on stormwater management	8	8
	2. Any "Legislation/Regulations" on stormwater management	8	8
	3. Any "Financial framework and Financing plans" for stormwater management	1	2
IS Indicators	1. Any national agency entrusted with the responsibility to support local authorities/cities to manage stormwater	8	8
	2. Any formal institutional arrangements among related agencies to support local authorities/cities to manage stormwater	5	5
MT Indicators	1. Any national stormwater management master plan	2	8
	2. Any code of practices/design manual for stormwater management	8	8
	3. Any computer modelling of stormwater quality and quantity	8	8
	4. Any urban stormwater flood warning system/telemetric system	7	7
	5. Any integrated stormwater management data center	7	7
	6. Any 24-hour Call/Feedback Centre for reporting flash floods	7	7